CAAPS is a coalition of professional associations that are committed to the dissemination of psychological science.

CAAPS associations currently include:

- Academy of Psychological Clinical Science (APCS)
- American Psychological Association (APA), practice directorate
- Association for Behavioral and Cognitive Therapies (ABCT)
- Association for Psychological Science (APS)
- Council of Graduate Departments of Psychology (COGDOP)
- Council of University Directors of Clinical Psychology (CUDCP)
- Psychological Clinical Science Accreditation System (PCSAS)
- Society of Clinical Child & Adolescent Psychology (SCCAP)
- Society for Research in Psychopathology (SRP)
- Society for a Science of Clinical Psychology (SSCP)

The CAAPS Psychology Expert Media Panel includes internationally renowned experts in psychological science who can offer the best possible commentary on the state of the scientific literature. Each member of this panel also has substantial experience working with the media, and each has agreed to be very responsive to media requests.
